How to navigate through Colour Network Colour Network Log in

www.colour.network

Once accepted and registered on the ASDC course you will receive a log in from us. This will provide your username and password. Your first task is to log in, as shown below and change your password. Click on “sign in to the network” as shown by the arrow.
The following page is shown. Add in your username and password as provided.

This will be your details for the whole time you are registered on the ASDC course and any other courses you may sign up for. Click remember me to be automatically registered each time you log into www.colour.network

Click on log in.
The top right hand corner changes to show “my account” and sign out. Click on “my account” to access the change password area and also to access the courses you are registered on.
From this screen you can access the course and check your account settings.
To change your password follow these instructions:

1. Click on account settings

2. Click on account details.

3. Reclick on account settings to see the following screen
You can now change your password. Remember to click on save changes.
To access your courses

Click on course settings.

From this screen you can access the course by clicking on the course you have showing that you are registered on.

This screen also allows you to check your progress on the course.
1. Click expand all to the right of the screen

This provides a Course Progress Overview.

Each course can be viewed separately or all course expanded. We can also access this data and will be keeping a watchful eye on your progress.

This provides a useful tool and easy access to quizzes to retake and improve scores. It also allows access to the course.

Use the collapse all button to get to a more manageable screen and access your course.
To access your course

Click on the course you want to access.

In this example we are accessing ASDC Colour Physics - Science and Application.

This takes you to the course page

Use the scroll to move down the page
The lessons and topics that make up your course can be accessed either through the Course Navigation menu on the right of the screen or through the lessons boxes at the bottom of the page.

The lessons boxes show you when lessons will be available. This has been designed to direct you in your learning and provide enough opportunity to undertake the study required.

The navigation bar at the side can also be expanded to show all topics and quizzes.
Click on the side of a lesson to expand or collapse the detail.

The dots will change shade when a topic and quiz are completed.

The lesson boxes can also be expanded by clicking expand all.
When a lesson is completed a tick will appear in the lesson boxes at the bottom of the page.

As you go through the course then the progress bar will provide a guide of how much of the course has been completed.

The lessons/ topics and quizzes

All lessons, topics and quizzes must be taken in sequence, the system does not allow you to skip lessons. In some instances, quizzes must be passed before you will be allowed to continue.

Description
The ASDC Virtual Learning Environment provides us with the opportunity to give you more from your learning experience.

In this lesson we will provide various exercises to take you through the course and prepare you for your examinations.

The video that appears in the various lessons and topics are an important part of the process and an example is given below.

For each lesson, you will have a series of questions, take your time to look through the ones associated with this lesson.

A lesson is then divided into topics which can have questions associated directly with them.

Follow the links associated with this lesson to learn more and get some handy tips on learning and examinations.
The lesson page may contain a video or may list topics which must be taken.

The lesson may contain a quiz which will have to be taken after all the topics have been completed.

To access a topic click that topic. Remember that these must be taken in sequence.
Forcing you to complete the course in the right order.

Clicking on a topic in the right order will provide a screen similar to this.
This welcome will talk you through the various types of resource that is available and an example quiz.

You will notice that the button that states “Mark Complete”. When you feel that you have taken enough time on a topic then it is your responsibility to mark it as complete, it is also your responsibility to ensure that you have taken the time to learn the topic. Without clicking this you will not be allowed to progress.

As your course provider we are able to check how long you have been accessing the course for and will be keeping track of this as well as your quiz scores.

Clicking “Mark Complete” automatically takes you to the next topic.
You will notice various points which can be clicked to return to previous topics, lessons and even the course page.

Once lessons and topics are complete they can be accessed at any time and so are useful for revision and recall.
Various people will have responsibility for your learning within the SDC:
